In the world of scholarly electronic publishing, InteLex continues to get it right, as they have from the beginning... I recommend InteLex databases to libraries wholeheartedly, not only because they are superior publications and a good deal, but also because InteLex is the kind of electronic publisher that academic libraries need most in the 21st century.

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF JEAN JACQUES ROUSSEAU

ISBN: 978-1-57085-304-3

Language: English translation

In Geneva: [1780]-1782 & 1789. Complete in 17 vols. Famous edition published by the Société typographique de Genève, containing the first part of the Confessions in the original edition. The text was established by Pierre Moulton and Du Peyrou. Edition printed simultaneously in three formats, the in-4 edition being the most prestigious. The 15 vols. were completed in 1789 by 2 additional vols. containing the second part of the Confessions.

The French was originally digitized by the library at the University of Geneva. Every page of the searchable text is linked to the image of the page in the original 18th century edition.

In addition, on an experimental basis, we have created a Google AI translation into English of all 17 volumes. Each page of the English translation is linked to the French of Rousseau (and vice-versa). While the English translation is not perfect, it can be used as a basis for searches, and the translation demonstrates how far AI translation has evolved.
